1 Frank McRae

LION'S BEACH

Intarsia is the art of using color, figure and different shapes of wood to make a scene or object. Frank has over 10 years experience developing Intarsia art pieces and has become iconic in the artisan circles of the area. His pieces reflect a northern lifestyle and are a pride to own.

2 Peter Burgoyne

2 MCKINLEY AVENUE

Peter designs and creates mirrors of various sizes that include handpicked wildflowers that are embedded in the surface. The mirrors are framed in a variety of items including old windows, doors and even snowshoes.

3 Annette Morrison

65 THIRD AVENUE

Annette collaborates with Sabrina Levesque to make hippie-inspired jewelry under the name La Bella Bohemia. She also designs and crochets zany hats and accessories under the name Cheewawamomma, and has developed an online following of fans around the world. Annette also has a passion for creating unique, and often strange, folk art dolls with a macabre twist.

4 Sabrina Levesque

65 THIRD AVENUE

Sabrina is drawn to anything that involves the arts, including playing music and singing. She is influenced by the 70's and is bringing macramé back in style with her jewelry and accessories. Sabrina is also a budding painter, and is inspired by things found in nature. She incorporates them into her paintings, creating truly unique 3-dimensional works of art.

5 Allyson Fortin

84 MCKINLEY AVENUE

Allyson delights her followers with a variety of artistic collections from jewelry to unique candy creations. Allyson is multi-talented and looks forward to sharing her treasure with you. Her daughter Haley (9) is showing promise as she discovers her own talent.

6 Louise Moran

EDC OFFICE: 96 BROADWAY AVENUE

With the use of her personal photos, Louise creates wonderful paintings from the surrounding area and places where she has been. She is well practiced with oils and is now using watercolours after attending the Haliburton School of Arts this summer. An Artist's brush, once in the hand never stops moving.

7 Karen Hemsworth

EDC OFFICE: 96 BROADWAY AVENUE

Karen brings material to life with her sewing talents. Creating quilts and dresses are her specialty, but her clever Teddy Bear designs are quickly becoming a favorite among local buyers.

8 Millie Fletcher

EDC OFFICE: 96 BROADWAY AVENUE

Canvas, polymer clay, and natural materials are the choice mediums for Millie Fletcher. Her pieces are best described as "creative" and "natural." Millie's art is full of variety and is sure to keep your interest in a firm grasp.

9 Don Charbonneau

TOURIST INFORMATION CENTRE

Don is a skilled painter and musician. His art resonates with the soul of the North, depicting nature with a whimsical feel. His paintings carry a mood of joy and harmony.

10 Carol Sanders

TOURIST INFORMATION CENTRE

Carol Ann Sanders is an author, business woman, mother and grandmother. Artworks are original and unique, multi-dimensional and exotic. Carol paints from a multi-cultural heritage and inspiration from the environment, nature, dreams, music, myth and magic. Each piece is an adventure into the psyche of the artist.

11 Adam Martin

120 PINWOOD DRIVE

Adam Robert Martin was raised in Port Elgin, Ontario on the shores of Lake Huron. Always drawing and painting from his early childhood, Adam explored different media and grew as an artist. As well as being a gifted pencil artist, he enjoys but is not limited to watercolor, oil, pastel, ink, wood, and clay.

12 Tiama Poldmaa

NATURALLY SUPERIOR ADVENTURES

As a full time artist, Tiama paints primarily in oil, using shape, line and shadow with dynamic colours to move the viewer deeply into form. She believes artists paint themselves into every painting telling a story, illuminating feelings through colour and structure.

13 Ron Hale

LONG BEACH

Ron Hale lives and works on the sandy shores of Lake Superior's Michipicoten Bay. He utilizes majola glazes with a variety of stains on multi-shaped clay tiles and functional pottery to depict the Big Water's mystery and unique Superior Coastline.

Ron wishes to express thanks to Jim Sanders of Harbour Pottery for his ongoing encouragement and guidance over the years.

14 Joanne Mills

LONG BEACH

Joanne gathers inspiration and materials from the northern landscape. She collects interesting pieces of driftwood or washed-up glass along the shorelines of Lake Superior and turns them into unique pieces of jewelry and beautiful frames.

15 Jennifer Taylor

LONG BEACH

Jennifer will be displaying and selling a variety of unique twig creations. Pieces range from chairs, tables of various sizes, candle holders, etc. Enjoy your visit to Jennifer's Studio overlooking Michipicoten Bay.

16 Jim Saunders

473A HARBOUR ROAD—ON LAKE SUPERIOR

Jim has been creating pottery for many years and is a well known artist in the Wawa area. He also creates plaques that feature the majesty of Lake Superior. His studio is located near the shores of the lake and has a breathtaking view.
